How to use this worksheet

Fill it in together with your partner over one or two weeks. Each step narrows your choices, so by the end you'll have one name you both love.

1	Fill in Steps 1 to 3 together before you look at any name lists.
2	Build your long list in Step 4 over a week or two. Don't judge names yet.
3	Use Steps 5 to 7 to cut your list down to a top 3.
4	Share only your top 3 with family in Step 8.
5	Lock in the final spelling in Step 9 before you fill in any official form.

Parents: _____ & _____

Due date: _____

STEP 1

Our values and meaning

Answer these together. Your answers become the filter for every name you consider.

How the name should feel (soft, strong, classic, modern)

STEP 2

Family traditions checklist

Tick everything that applies to your family, so nothing surprises you later.

- ☐ We'll name the baby on a set day (Aqiqah, Namkaran, Nwaran, Naam Karan, baptism). Day: _____
- ☐ The first letter or syllable should follow a tradition (nakshatra, rashi, hukamnama, astrologer)
- ☐ A religious name or meaning is important to us
- ☐ An elder or religious teacher should be consulted: _____
- ☐ A family prefix or suffix will be used (Muhammad, Syed, Singh, Kaur, other: _____)
- ☐ We'll use a pet name at home and a formal name for documents
- ☐ We want to honour a grandparent or relative: _____
- ☐ The surname will be: _____

STEP 3

STEP 5

Sound, surname and initials check

Say each full name aloud several times. Write the initials and every nickname it could create, in English and your home languages.

#	Full name (first + middle + surname)	Initials	Likely nicknames	Flows well?	Meaning checked?
1				Y / N	Y / N
2				Y / N	Y / N
3				Y / N	Y / N
4				Y / N	Y / N
5				Y / N	Y / N
6				Y / N	Y / N
7				Y / N	Y / N
8				Y / N	Y / N
9				Y / N	Y / N
10				Y / N	Y / N

Watch out for: initials that spell a word, names that rhyme with the surname, sounds that blur where the first name meets the surname, and nicknames you wouldn't like to hear at school.

STEP 6

Scorecard for your top 10

Name	Meaning	Sound & flow	Family & tradition fit	Easy worldwide	Works at every age	Total /25

Our top 3 (highest totals):

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
